

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

One of the city "slickers", young Alby Roberts of Waterloo.

Plenty to smile about apparently. Kath Bright of Condobolin and her friend Monte Knight.

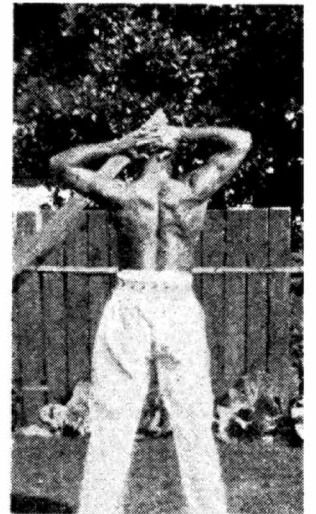

Two coy little flower girls, Rhonda and Pam McGrady of Boggabilla.

As you can guess, this picture was taken in the Summer time. Shirley Ballangarry of Bowraville looks good in her swimsuit.

A back view of our May "cover boy", Police Tracker Sergeant Bill Robinson of Grafton.
