

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women

Some of the people from Cubawee and Cabbage Tree Island who gathered for a convention at Box Ridge, Coraki.

Hiding in the bushes we found Ron Vale and Henry Dunn of Bellbrook.

A spot of shadow sparring in the sun keeps Leslie Lang of Bogga-billa fit.

Rachael and Kenneth Leonard of Coonamble and their pony "Blue".

The cameraman found Cec French of Mallanganel in a delightful setting near the creek.
