

Notes from Purfleet

About twenty-five of the women-folk from Purfleet hired a bus and journeyed to Kempsey hoping to take off all the prizes at the Aboriginal Baby Show, however the proud mothers found the going pretty tough, as only one of them came back with a first prize.

Mrs. G. Maher's boy, Geoffrey, was the winner for his age group.

Nevertheless a good time was had by all.

The Purfleet ladies say they will go again next year and ask the Kempsey ladies to beware, as they intend bringing back more than one 1st prize on that occasion.

Charlie Edwards, one of Purfleet's many singers, has been invited by one of the Taree churches to be a member of their choir and has accepted.

Congratulations Charlie.

The painting of Purfleet Station cottages is now completed and the whole Station presents a very pleasing appearance. The installation of several street lights too, has made a big difference.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. L. Maher, Mr. and Mrs. W. Russel, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Russel. These residents have recently had their homes wired and are now receiving the benefit of the electricity. It is expected that others will follow.

Two missionaries were at Purfleet over the Easter period and it was noticed that the church was full on a number of occasions.

A good time of fellowship was enjoyed by many of the residents.

When Edna and Grace Brown were recently entertained at a party at Anthony Horderns big store in Sydney they certainly made short work of their ice-cream.
