

ABORIGINES IN ACTION

Wherever you go in this State you will find Aborigines in action. They are rightfully making their presence felt throughout society. Their confidence and success is increasing each year as they play a more prominent part. The pictures show where they are and what they are doing. You'll find them excelling in sport, competing successfully in many fields, and helping to build the nation in a great many ways.

