(2.) Except as in the subsection next following provided no court, judge, magistrate, or justice of the peace shall accept or allow to be recorded or entered any plea of guilty when pleaded by or on behalf of a native to any indictment, complaint, or charge for or of any crime, misdemeanour, or offence, indictable or otherwise, preferred against such native; and in the event of a native pleading guilty to any such indictment, complaint or charge, the court, judge, magistrate, or justice before which or before whom the plea is pleaded, shall reject the same, and order a plea of not guilty to be recorded or entered, and thereupon the trial shall proceed as if the accused native had pleaded not guilty in the first instance, and no reference or comment shall be made or permitted during the course of the proceedings and trial to or upon the fact that the accused native originally pleaded to the indictment, complaint, or charge.

(3.) Notwithstanding the terms of the subsection last preceding, a plea of guilty by or on behalf of a native may, subject to a note in writing of the circumstances being made by the presiding judge, chairman, magistrate, or justice, be accepted and acted upon, provided the same is pleaded in the presence and hearing of a protector of natives, and that the protector satisfies the court, judge, magistrate, or justice before whom the plea is made that the accused native understands the nature of the accusation against him, and is aware of his right to trial, and without duress or pressure of any sort desires to plead guilty, and that the protector approves of such plea of guilty being pleaded.

(4.) No member of the police force, being a protector of natives, whose duties as a member of the police force connect him with the particular prosecution, shall be entitled to approve of or assent to any plea of guilty under subsection three of this section in such prosecution.

(5.) Any protector may, on behalf of a native indicted for or charged with any crime, misdemeanour, or offence, address the court or the jury, on behalf of the accused, and examine and cross-examine the witnesses.

61. (1.) Any native who having been at any time convicted of an offence under section three hundred and eighty-two or four hundred and fifty-two of the Criminal Code, is subsequently convicted of an offence under either of those sections and sentenced to imprisonment, may on the warrant of the Minister be released from his imprisonment, and conveyed into some part of the State defined in the warrant and prevented from passing outside the boundaries thereof during the Governor's pleasure or for such period as may be limited in that behalf by the warrant.

(2.) If the offender escape beyond the said boundaries he may at any time, and as often as necessary and without any additional warrant be arrested and taken back into such part of the State and compelled to remain therein in accordance with the said warrant.

62. Every person who is charged with assaulting a native shall be summarily tried by a stipendiary, police, or resident magistrate.

Charge of assaulting native to be dealt with summarily.

New section inserted by 43 of 1936, s. 31.

63. (1.) The Governor may by proclamation establish a court, to be called "a court of native affairs," in any district or districts, to be specified in such proclamation for the trial of any offence committed by a native against another native.

Establishment of native courts.

New section inserted by 43 of 1936, s. 31.

(2.) (a) Every such court shall be constituted by the Governor by commission in the prescribed form from time to time, as occasion requires.

(b) The court shall be constituted by a special magistrate, who shall be nominated by the Governor in the commission and who shall be chairman of the court, and the Commissioner or a protector nominated by the Commissioner.

(c) The court shall if practicable call to its assistance a headman of the tribe to which the accused person belongs.

(3.) Every such court shall have exclusive jurisdiction in connection with the trial of any native for any such offence and may, in considering any charge which is made against a native, take into account in mitigation of punishment any tribal custom which may be set up and proved as the reason for the commission of the offence.

(4.) Where it appears that any native has in pursuance of any tribal custom committed an offence against another native, then the court may, in the case of a charge which, under the Criminal Code, may involve punishment of death or imprisonment without the option of a fine for any period in excess of ten years, sentence the offender to any term of imprisonment not more than ten years with hard labour, or order that the offender be banished from his country and kept during the Governor's pleasure in prison or in some place reserved by the Governor for native prisoners under sentence of banishment. The proceedings of any such court shall be final and without appeal: Provided the wife of an accused native shall not be a compellable witness.

(5.) The Governor may make regulations prescribing the procedure to be followed by such courts in the trial of offenders.

64. (1.) Any wages due to or property known to belong to a native—

- (a) who absconds from service; or
- (b) who is deceased,

and any estate or other moneys to which a native is entitled, either as beneficiary or otherwise, shall forthwith be paid or delivered by the employer, trustee, debtor, or other person liable to pay or deliver the same to the Commissioner, and failure to do so shall be an offence against the Act.

(2.) The Commissioner may recover any such wages or property by action in his name in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3.) On receipt of such wages or property the Commissioner shall, in the case of money, place the same to the credit of a special trust account, and where the property does not consist of money the Commissioner shall as soon as reasonably may be convert the same into money and place the same to the credit of such account.

New section inserted by 43 of 1936, s. 31.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the moneys placed to the credit of the said account as herein provided may in the case of a native who has absconded, and in the event of no claim for the money being made by the native within a period of three years, be applied by the Commissioner for the benefit of natives generally, and in the case of a native who has died intestate, shall be applied in accordance with regulations made under the provisions of section thirty-five.

65. Any person who defrauds any native by any artifice, trick, or misrepresentation shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Defrauding natives.
New section inserted by 43 of 1936, s. 31.

66. Whenever the Minister on the recommendation of of the Commissioner is of the opinion that any tribal practice of the natives or any section of the natives in any district is injurious to the natives or any section of the natives, he may give all such instructions as in his opinion are calculated to minimise or stamp out the practice.

Minister may prohibit tribal practices in certain cases.
New section inserted by 43 of 1936, s. 31.

Any person who disobeys any instruction of the Minister under this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

67. (1.) Any person who without a permit in writing from a protector supplies any native with or permits any native to have possession of any poison or noxious substance shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty on supplying poison to natives.
New section inserted by No. 43 of 1936, s. 31.

(2.) A permit granted under this section may authorise any person to supply poison to a native or natives specified in the permit for a period not longer than six months from the date of the permit, or such shorter period as the protector thinks advisable, but a permit may be renewed by a protector in respect of any native or natives, provided that the period of renewal is never greater than six months.

68. The Governor may make regulations for all or any of the matters following (that is to say) :—
